

Department of Theology

Major for the Bachelor of Arts Degree

Theology with areas of concentration in:

- Systematic Theology
- Contextual Theology

Minor for the Bachelor of Arts Degree

Theology

Introductory Courses

One basic course (TH 101) and seven (7) second-level courses (TH 201, TH 205, TH 206, TH 207, TH 208, TH 209, and TH 210) are designed to give the student an overall view of theology. Students in the major programs should complete at least three (3) second-level courses before taking specialized courses. Exceptions to this general policy must be approved by the Theology Department chairperson.

Specialized Courses

The theology program is designed to allow for a wide variety of course offerings, according to the needs of students and the availability of professors. If necessary, visiting professors will be invited to offer courses.

Interdisciplinary Courses

Specified courses from other departments may be taken with the permission of the Theology Department chairperson and in accordance with the needs of an individual student's program. The Theology Department encourages interdisciplinary and cross-disciplinary communication.

Ministry Formation

Carroll College students interested in preparing themselves for service to the Church in ministry positions may participate in the program of Formation of Lay Ministers of the Diocese of Helena.

The Formation of Lay Ministers program is under the direction of the Office of Ministries of the Diocese of Helena. It is expressly designed for the spiritual, intellectual, and psychological/emotional formation of those who are called by the Church to serve the Church as Lay Ministers. It is an intensive two-year program and involves sixteen (16) weekend sessions. Each weekend involves twelve (12) hours of instruction as well as community building exercises. At the completion of the two-year program, a certificate of completion is granted to the participant by the Diocese of Helena.

Admission to this program for Carroll College students is determined by the Office of Ministries of the Diocese of Helena. Fees for the program are adjusted annually and are the responsibility of the participant.
