

PAD: Courses in Public Administration

Department of Business, Accounting, and Economics

PAD 205 Introduction to Public Administration 3 Cr

The course focuses on the public sector with specific emphasis on the role of the manager in directing public institutions. Skill development and understanding of policy-making, management, and professional ethics are key course objectives. Designed to prepare students for service at municipal, state, and federal levels of government. Fall semester. Fulfills writing intensive requirement.

PAD 412 Administrative Internship 3 Cr

An opportunity to apply former course work to administrative responsibilities in a public sector work environment. Prerequisite: Consent of the chairs of the Business, Accounting, and Economics Department and the Political Science Department.