

GK: Courses in Greek

Department of Languages and Literature

A student with high school Greek should consult with the instructor for placement in courses.

GK 201-202 Introductory Greek

6 Cr

This course is designed to give students an introduction to Attic (Classical) and Koine (Biblical) Greek, and experience translating classic and scriptural authors. Class material reflects Greek history, mythology, religion, philosophy, literature, and art, and includes quotations and excerpts of the best Greek writers and thinkers including Homer, Herodotus, and Thucydides. Scriptural readings are from the Gospels of Luke and John. Greek grammar is presented in a way that is understandable to students and at the same time preserves what is best in the long tradition of classical scholarship. Fall odd and spring even semesters.

GK 301-302 Intermediate Greek

6 Cr

This course builds on the fundamentals of the introductory class and develops proficiency in translating and understanding classic and scriptural authors, and classical culture. The Classic Greek readings include Solon, Heiod, and Xenophanes; the Scriptural Greek is draw from the Gospel of John. Prerequisite: GK 201-202. Fall even and spring odd semesters.
