

IR: Courses in International Relations

Interdepartmental

IR 486 Readings and Conference 1-3 Cr

An informal seminar with selected readings and reports on particular aspects of international relations. Offered by arrangement. Prerequisite: Consent of program director and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

IR 492 Internship in International Relations 6 Cr

An internship with the Department of Commerce of the State of Montana; requires twenty (20) hours of work per week and must be arranged through the director of Carroll's international relations program.

IR 495 Research Seminar in International Relations 3 Cr

A formal seminar in which students concentrate on researching, writing, and evaluating major papers in international relations based on both primary and secondary source materials. Required for all international relations majors. Fall semester. Fulfills writing intensive requirement.

IR 499 Honors Thesis 1-3 Cr

In order to graduate with honors in international relations, a student is required to complete an honors thesis.