

Department of Theology

Mission of the Department

The theology department's mission is to promote careful biblical and theological reflection, spiritual awareness, and an understanding of the Catholic tradition. As mandated by the mission of the college, the theology department serves the college community, the wider civic community and the diocese of Helena in "acting as a mediator between religion and culture (and) by carrying on an academic dialogue with philosophy, science, the liberal arts, the believing community and secular society" (Carroll College's Mission Statement).

Department Goals

- To provide students with an understanding of the basic principles and concepts in biblical, moral and doctrinal theology from a Catholic perspective;
- To acquaint students with a variety of theological perspectives and to provide them with the ability to interpret and evaluate them;
- To provide students with the skills of critical thinking and their application in reading, speaking and writing;
- To require students to investigate and to articulate the relationship between theology and other fields of study;
- To provide students with the necessary background, knowledge, and intellectual skills to succeed in graduate study.

Major for the Bachelor of Arts Degree

Theology with areas of concentration in:
Systematic Theology
Contextual Theology

Minor for the Bachelor of Arts Degree

Theology

Introductory Courses

One basic course (TH 101) and seven (7) second-level courses (TH 201, TH 205, TH 206, TH 207, TH 208, TH 209, and TH 210) are designed to give the student an overall view of theology. Students in the major programs should complete at least three (3) second-level courses before taking specialized courses. Exceptions to this general policy must be approved by the Theology Department chairperson.

Specialized Courses

The theology program is designed to allow for a wide variety of course offerings, according to the needs of students and the availability of professors. If necessary, visiting professors will be invited to offer courses.

Interdisciplinary Courses

Specified courses from other departments may be taken with the permission of the Theology Department chairperson and in accordance with the needs of an individual student's program. The Theology Department encourages interdisciplinary and cross-disciplinary communication.

Ministry Formation

Carroll College students interested in preparing themselves for service to the Church in ministry positions may participate in the program of Formation of Lay Ministers of the Diocese of Helena.

The Formation of Lay Ministers program is under the direction of the Office of Ministries of the Diocese of Helena. It is expressly designed for the spiritual, intellectual, and psychological/emotional formation of those who are called by the Church to serve the Church as Lay Ministers. It is an intensive two-year program and involves sixteen (16) weekend sessions. Each weekend involves twelve (12) hours of instruction as well as community building exercises. At the completion of the two-year program, a certificate of completion is granted to the participant by the Diocese of Helena.

Admission to this program for Carroll College students is determined by the Office of Ministries of the Diocese of Helena. Fees for the program are adjusted annually and are the responsibility of the participant.
