Head Coach Maureen Boyle

Maureen Boyle begins her third season as Head Coach of the Fighting Saints volleyball team. Maureen graduated from Carroll in 1993 with a BA in Mathematics and Secondary Education.

In her first two seasons as head coach, Maureen has cumulated a 39-26 record making it to the NAIA Regional Tournament in both 2005 and 2006. This past season Boyle led the Saints to a Frontier Conference title, while advancing in the NAIA Regional Tournament, making it one game away from playing for the regional championship. Maureen coached three All-Conference players in 2006.

Maureen Boyle

After playing for the Fighting Saints volleyball program in the early 90's, Maureen coached high school volleyball for 10 years, leading Flathead High School to their first Montana state title in 2001. In 2002 she took the helm of NCAA Division III Beloit College in Wisconsin. Posting a 3-27 record the year before she arrived, Coach Boyle guided Beloit to a 26-12 record in her final season earning her Midwest Conference Coach Of The Year nominations in 2003.

Maureen is married to Cal Boyle. They currently reside in Helena with their son Keiran and new daughter Mollee.
