Amended Terms and Conditions

8. While additional steps are being taken to increase cleaning and sanitation in Residence Halls and Campus Dining to help reduce the spread of COVID-19, to remain in on-campus housing students must agree to abide by Carroll College's amended housing agreement rules and accept responsibility to help reduce the risk to yourself and others by social distancing, increased hand-washing, and isolation and proper medical response in the event of any symptoms consistent with COVID-19, including any of the following: fever, cough, shortness of breath. Students who request to remain living on campus housing are accepting the inherent risks related to continuing to live in on-campus housing, and agree to follow all established campus policies and COVID-19 responsible practices including but not limited to: Social distancing; No gatherings of more than 3 individuals while maintaining 6-foot distance; Non-Carroll guests are not permitted in residential spaces; Regular hand washing; Regular cleaning and sanitation of personal spaces; Notifying the wellness center immediately of any symptoms consistent with COVID-19. In addition, all students who remain on-campus must abide by all Federal, State, and local guidelines implemented to combat COVID-19 transmission, following the most stringent of such guidelines to the extent they conflict. Carroll College additionally reserves the right to impose additional restrictions or conditions on activities as required to maintain the health and safety of residents and staff. For the safety of such students and all Carroll community members, any violation of policies and expectations will result in the immediate removal from campus property. Carroll College reserves the right to request residents to relocate to a different on-campus housing unit or to terminate on-campus dining or housing during the remainder of the semester to meet health, safety and staffing requirements. *

9. I am requesting to reside in one of Carroll College's residence halls for the duration indicated above. I have reviewed and understand the terms and conditions of continued housing during the COVID-19 pandemic expressed above. I also understand my continued occupancy is conditioned on compliance with these terms and conditions, as well as current and future orders, requirements or expectations imposed by current federal, state and local authorities. I understand there is an inherent risk of contracting COVID-19 as part of living in on-campus housing and accept that risk by signing this Agreement. I also understand and accept my responsibility for taking all measures to avoid transmission of COVID-19 to others. In accepting such risk and responsibility, I agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Carroll College and its employees and agents for any and all claims that might arise from the transmission of COVID-19 related in any way to my occupancy. I understand if I violate any of the terms and stipulations I will be required to move out of on-campus housing immediately in the best interest and for the safety of myself and the Carroll College community. I understand and accept that Carroll College will strictly enforce the requirements of this Agreement. By submitting this form and my electronic signature below, I am requesting continued housing, and agree to the terms and conditions expressly stated and incorporated by reference into this Agreement. *
