PHI ALPHA THETA
The Omega-Omega chapter of Phi Alpha Theta was founded in 1930, to promote the study and improvement of the foreign languages, the stimulation of advanced pursuits and individual research in foreign languages, the promotion of cultural and intellectual exchange, and the development of strong personal and professional excellence. The award is so rigorous that typically six percent of candidates are able to reach all thresholds on their first attempts. The Manion Scholars Award was established in 1998 to honor Dr. James J. Manion, who served Carroll College's students for forty-two years as a math educator, teacher educator, and Academic Dean, who served Carroll College's students for forty-two years with knowledge, skill, and affection.

ALPHA KAPPA DELTA
Alpha Kappa Delta is the International Sociology Honor Society. In 1996, Carroll College’s Department of Sociology was the first institution in the United States to establish an affiliate chapter of Phi Sigma Iota International Honor Society, the first to be chartered in Montana. Phi Sigma Iota is an international honor society in the field of foreign languages. The Honor Society recognizes outstanding accomplishment in the study or teaching of any of the academic fields related to foreign language, literature, or culture. This international society has as its ideals and purpose the recognition of outstanding ability and achievement in the study of foreign languages, the stimulation of advanced pursuits and individual research in foreign languages, the promotion of cultural and intellectual exchange, and the development of strong personal and professional excellence. The award is so rigorous that typically six percent of candidates are able to reach all thresholds on their first attempts. The Manion Scholars Award was established in 1998 to honor Dr. James J. Manion, who served Carroll College's students for forty-two years with knowledge, skill, and affection.

SIGMA BETA DELTA International Honor Society in business, management and administration. A lifetime membership in Sigma Beta Delta is a prestigious honor bestowed upon business students who rank in the upper 20% of their junior or senior class. In addition to recognizing students’ academic achievements, Sigma Beta Delta also promotes honorable service to mankind and lifetime professional improvement. The award is so rigorous that typically six percent of candidates are able to reach all thresholds on their first attempts. The Manion Scholars Award was established in 1998 to honor Dr. James J. Manion, who served Carroll College's students for forty-two years with knowledge, skill, and affection.
